Mrs. A. Manley
101 Montgomery Street
Newark, N. J.

Dear Mrs. Manley:

Many thanks for your letter submitting May 8 and 9 for a possibility for the Phila. Stars in Richmond and Norfolk, respectively.

I am sorry to advise that we won't be able to handle these dates because our men will be training in Philadelphia and wouldn't want to send them on such a trip before the season starts without them being on salary.

I'd suggest that you try the New York Black Yanks or Cuban Stars, or better still, maybe the Baltimore Elites will be around Baltimore or Washington around that time and it will be easy for them to go down to these places.

Again thanking you for keeping us in mind and with best wishes and regards, I am

Sincerely,

Ed. Gottlieb
